

WHAT ARE YOU WILLING TO LOSE?

In AMFA's ChatGPT-written release on May 20, 2025, their silence on the Share Trust rang loud and clear.

Like the other Air Canada unions, the IAM was given shares for concessions made in 2012. These shares belong to the IAM. The packages and payouts have been agreed to by all the Air Canada unions, the company, and the Canadian government. We are simply awaiting a final approval from Revenue Canada.

AMFA's silence on the Share Trust is acknowledging that there is nothing they can do.

For those who qualify for a retirement package or payout of the shared trust... Are you willing to flush away up to one year of salary and/or additional payments?

Don't let empty promises take money out of your pocket.

When casting your confidential vote, choose a union that protects all workers – not just specific skill sets.
